MISS MOORE BRIDE AT NAVAL WEDDING

Father Officiates at Marriage of Lieut. R. C. Reed to Washington Girl.

Aswell Married to James E. Cantrill in Capital.

Special Despatch to Tun Sun. WASHINGTON, Oct. 9,-Miss Francis Moore, daughter of Mrs. Francis Dubois Moore, was married this afternoon to Lieut, Richard C. Reed, U. S. N., in the home of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Richard C. Reed, father of the bridegroom. Miss Susanna Moore, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Gertrude Cherry and Miss Elizabeth Payne were bridesmalds. Lieutenant Commander A. W. Rieger was best man A small detachment of Junior marines organization in which the bride has an deeply interested, formed a guard The bride wore white satin and georgette with a veil of rare old lines. Lieut, Reed and his bride will visit his invalid mother in Columbia, S. C., before going to San Francisco. Later they will sail for Samoa, where Lieut. Reed will

The marriage of Miss Corinne Aswell. daughter of Representative and Mrs. James B. Aswell of Louisiana, to James B. Cantrill, son of Representative J. Campbell Cantrill of Kentucky, took place at noon to-day in the apartment of the bride's parents, the Rev. Earle Wilofficiating. Charles Roberts of kfort, Ky., was the best man.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, with members of her family, went for a motor ride again this afternoon, the second time she has left the White House since the Presdent's iliness took a serious turn last Baroness de Cartier, wife of the Eclgian Ambassador, who remained in New York when the Ambassador accompanied King Albert and Queen Elizabeth to the Pacific, is expected to return to Washington on Saturday. Mrs. Robert Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, and her mother, Mrs. John W. Foster, will be entertained at luncheon te-morrow by Mrs. Hampson Cary, wife of the United States Consuleral to Cairo, who is spending seval weeks in Washington. Viscount D. Alte, the retiring Minister from Portugal, who has represented his country in Washington since 1902 and has been dean of the corps of foreign Ministers many years, has gone to New York and will sail some time this month

Assistant Secretary of State an Mrs. William Phillips left to-day for Boston and will spend the week end at their summer home at Fort Beverly Mass Mrs. Phillips will not return to MARRIED.

HOTT-SEABURY,-On Wednesday, October 8. at Emmanuel Church, Boston, Mass., by the Rev. Elwood Worcester, Alice Alian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs rank Seabury, to Joseph Blachley

LADDELL-OAKNAN.-Married on Octo ber 7th, at Lopdon, England, Helen Lincklasn Oakman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Oakman, to Lieut Buchan M. Liddell, R. N. R. LONGEWAY-SLAUSON,-On October S

1915, at Great Falls, Mont., Marjorie Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Renford Slauson of New York and Elizabeth, N. J., to Forcest H., son of Dr. and Mrs. Longeway of Great Falls.

SMITH-FREEMAN,-Married by the Rev. Richard Cobden of Larchmont, N. Y., Thursday, October 2, 1912, Medora Freeman to Austin Smith, both of Middletown, Ohio.

DIED.

CEAPMAN - Johanna, on October 5. Ser-Broadway and Sixty-sixth street (Frank E. Campbell), Friday, 10 A. M. DOHRMANN-Frederick "THE FUNERAL CHURCH Broadway and Sixty-sixth street (Frank E. Campbell), Friday, $:30 P. M. DORNING-Robert T. Suddenly Thursday,

Funeral services at his late residence 114 West Eighty-first street, Sunday evening, October 12, at 5 o'clock. lease omit flowers.

GR.L.-At Orange, N. J., October 8, 1919. Louise Smith, wife of George Metcalf Gill, aged 48 years.

Funeral services at her late residence, 95 treil to-day with Capt. Robert R. Glen.

Cleveland street, Orange, N. J., Friday, October 10, 3:36 P. M. Picase omit HARVARD FUND THIRD RAISED.

HERRICK .-- At Riverside, Conn., October 8th, Sophia Mclivaine Bledsoe, age 82 Funeral private.

LAMAR.—On October 8, Edith M. Walker, wife of Thomas W. Lamar. Puneral service at her late residence, 46 Clinton avenue, Jamaica, N. Y., Fri-MOODY.-Evangeline. On October 5.

Broadway and Sixty-sixth stree | Prank E. Campbell), Friday, 3 P. M. MORSE.-At Sands Point, L. L. Thursday, October 5, 1919, Harry F. Morse, in his 68th year, beloved husband of lane Schuyler and only son of the ate J. Parker and Mary Henry Morse

Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" of Bath, Me. Funeral services at Central Presbyterlan Church, Fifty-seventh street and Madison avenue, on Saturday, October 11, at 1 P. M. McDONALD.—William, on October S. Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH! Broadway and Sixty-sixth street (Frank E. Campbell), Friday, 2 P. M. PARKER -On Thursday, October 9, 1919,

Thomas J., husband of Charlotte Parker, at his residence, 41 West Thirtyxih street, Bayonne, N. J. Funeral private. Kindly omit flowers. SETMOUR -Nells. Services "THE PU-NERAL CHURCH." Broadway at Six-

Y sixth street (Frank E. Campbell) fider, 11 A. M. |Auspices Actors'

PERSONAL.

wife. SIMAH MOSES VAUGHAN, and suks left my bed and board, I will not specially for any indebtedness cond by her. Oct. 9, 1913 W VAUGHAN, Red Bank, N. J.

UNDERTAKERS.

"CAMPBELL SERVICE" is founded upon thorough, intimate knowledge of all the factors that enter into the making of a perfect Funeral Arrangement.

We employ nearly one hundred of carefully selected people. Our Institution of Thirty Years' standing is steadily expanding.

We invite your inspection.

Call "Columbus 8260" Any Hour, Day or Night.

FRANK E. CAMPBELL

THE FUNERAL CHURCH

INDIA BECYNNIAN

Breadway at 60° St. 23° Street at 8th Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Chew have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Mary Chew Bell, widow of Gardiner Hubbard Bell, to William Miller Davis of Kingston and Providence. The ceremony will take place at noon on Saturday in Jamestown, and will be followed by a reception in the su. mer home of Admiral and Mrs. Seaton Schroeder.

Capt Arthur L. Snagge, naval attache of the British Embassy, entertained a company at dinner this evening. Mr. and Mrs. S. Proctor Brady of Baltimore and their guest, Mrs. He-bert S. Stone, were among the guests motoring over

HOME WILL BE IN SAMOA were among the guests motoring over NORMAL LEVEL SOUGHT from the Laurel races.

Daughter of Representative GIVES LECTURE IN NEWPORT. Cardinal Talks to Financiers Mrs. Fisher Is Guest at Reception Before Address to Club.

Special Despatch to Twe Sun. Newport, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Dorothy Canfield Flaher, who is the guest of Mrs.
Thomas J. Emery, lectured this evening before the Newport College Club on "Life in France and in America." This afternoon a reception was held for her by Mrs. George C. Thorp. Receiving with Mrs. Thorp were Mrs. Ruth Franktin, president of the college club; Miss Ellen F. Mason, Mrs. William Safford
Jones and Mrs. John V. Babcock.
The officers of the naval training station will give three dances, the first to be held Thursday evening.
The Misses Ward gave a tea this afternoon. WPORT, Oct. 9 .- Mrs. Dorothy Can

Miss Georgiana Roberts will be reck end.

Mrs. William B. Caperton and Miss

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Baldwin have arrived for a brief visit.

Bradford Norman, Jr., has started for Porto Rico. Mrs. Richard W. Corbin has returned from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav S. J. White have started on a motor trip in Vermont.

VISITORS IN BERKSHIRES.

New Yorkers Among the Arrivals in Massachusetts Resorts.

Special Despatch to THE SEN. LENOX, Mass., Oct. 9 .- Among the tourists arriving to-day for a brief stay are William E. Iselin, Theodore Zerega, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Comstock, the Misses Grace and Helen De Castro of New York, and Mrs. James Mapes Dodge, Mrs. H. S. Paul, Jr., Miss Dodge and Spencer K. Mulford, Jr., of Philadelphia. Mrs. George H. Morgan of New York at Curtis Hotel

Mrs. Archibald Gourlay Thacher of New York is visiting Mrs. William louglas Sloane. Mrs. Julia C. O'Donnell has taken partments at Wellington Villa for the

Mrs. Henry W. Bishop of New York travelling with Mrs. E. R. Moodle of Hoy Lake, England, and Miss F. A. lwight of Boston are at the Maplewood

Pittsfield. Mr. and Mrs. John Alden Spoor will lose their season in Pittsfield tomorrow.

RAIN HALTS TENNIS CONTEST. Men's Doubles at Hot Springs Will Be Played To-day.

Special Despatch to Tun Sun HOT SPRINGS, Va., Oct. 9 .- Miss Kath erine Force, who was obliged to retire from the tennis tournament yesterday owing to a fall in which she hurt her left arm, took her place in the women's doubles to-day and with Miss Phyllis Walsh defeated Mrs. de Forest Candee and Miss Julia Shardey, 6—1, 6—3, The men's doubles had to be postponed until to-morrow on account of rain.

Reginald de Koven arrived to-day rom New York to join Mrs. de Koven

Charles Smithers also arrived to-day and has joined Mrs. Smithers. Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis Scull arrived to-day from Philadelphia; Mrs. Leonard A. Yerkes is here from Wilmington, Del.; Frances T. Ducharme from Detroit to join Mrs. Ducharme and Miss Elsie Ducharme; Mr. and Mrs. Gerardus L. Miller from Englewood, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Taylor

SWIMMING POOL POPULAR.

Younger Set at White Sulphur

Joy Water Sports. Special Despatch to Tun Sex

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. WHITE SCLPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 9,—The swimming pool was an attraction this morning for the younger set. Miss Helen James, who is here with Mrs. Henry Dibbles; Miss Theresa Sterrett, Miss Elizabeth Root, Mrs. Edward W. McKenna, Mrs. Charles H. Goddard, Mrs. Ica Howe and Mrs. George Kahlo were in the pool. were in the pool

Miss Geraldine Graham, who arrived yesterday with her mother, Mrs. William Miller Graham, 'after passing the sum-mer at Newport, code over Valley View

Endowment Grows as Eampaign Is Pushed Vigorously.

The Harvard endowment fund campaign for $15,250,000 stood at $5,296,777 yesterday with the addition of late Wednesday contributions from the cam-paigning in this city. The total so far raised in this city is $2,225,000, in Bos-ton $1.850,717 and in the rest of the

The New York War Camp Community Service is so anxious to see Armistice Day properly observed that it is preparing suggestions for programmes adaptable to almost every community. Parades, pageants, concerts dances, athletics, neighborhood dinners, haby contests, block parties and some other features are recommended. Branches of features are recommended. Branches of the service in localities throughout the

. UNDERTAKERS.

Ask For Horlick's Safe Malted Milk Milk & Invalids

A Nutritious Diet for All Ages Quick Lunch at Home or Office

Washington for the season until next MERCIER EXPOUNDS Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Chew have is-PROPERTY DOCTRINE

Ownership Is Right, Also a Trusteeship Which Affects World.

as Guest of Chamber of Commerce.

its regular monthly meeting. He was introduced after the despatch of routine business and in beginning his speech mentioned the smoothness with which it Marguerite Caperton have come from had been put through, saying that any New London and are at the Muenchinger European body of the same similarmose. European body of the same significance and dignity would have required a week or two, with long drawn oratory and counter oratory. Then presently he came to the subject of property rights. "In Belgium we face at this moment I fear, a danger, for the Germans have stolen all the metals and machinery and thousands of our workmen are idle This creates a state of trouble; I have never seen our people so dissatisfied as they are since peace arrived. "Radical socialism is working everywhere, undermining the foundation of society. Radical socialism, Bolshevism, where, undermining the foundation o society. Radical socialism, Bolshevism goes through the world as a current. "So I think we all have a task to accomplish, you as well as I. Let u go forward hand in hand to keep firm go forward hand in name of I under the basis of the social order. I under the basis of the social order. the basis of the social order. I under-stand that my duty as soon as I reach home is to give all my powers to main-taining and keeping alive the principles of morality and order. We are all to-gether, you with me and I with you, to of property.

Property must be kept. Without in "Property must be kept. Without in-dividual property, without individual re-sponsibility for getting property, we shall go through anarchy or become slaves under the violence of tyranny. "We have to resist together, then, the confusion of the legitimate liberty of individuals and the legitimate authority of the State. Well. I for my part, will be in that field and will do my work, and I am sure you will do yours. Help all you can to emourage the socially oppressed and ansist conflicts and the legitimate. pressed and assist families and the institutions supporting the family home.
If you will help us to restore as soon as possible the normal conditions of life to our workmen and our middle class will cooperate with us and we with you in the restoration of the morale of all "I think you will agree with me that radicals who would put the influence of religion outside of society are wrong. Religion has an influence on morality and morality on the material prosperity of the world—all links in one chain. I think, then, that my visit among you will be something more than a moment of mutual kindness with esteem and exection. High up, it will be, it will have some permanent effects.

"I am sorry that I express so imactly my ideas, but I see you un-and. I would give you that formal word, a word of confidence in you

Cardinal Mercier will leave New York

Cardinal Mercier and Archbishop Pat- be held at the Colony Club. the war. It was originally intended to have the visit to-day, but Mr. Rockefeller had planned to go to Lakewood and the plans of the Cardinal were changed. Four policemen from Yonkers changed. Four policemen from Yonkers assorted the party, which reached the Rockefeller gate about 4:19 o'clock. Before entering the Rockefeller estate the Cardinal visited the Marymount School, where he offered a blessing.

The Cardinal brought a busy day to a close at the Hotel Commodore last night, when he was the guest of honor at a dinner given by the Knights of Columbus. Besides Cardinal Mercier, who spoke about ten minutes and thanked the Knights for what they had done in the war, the speakers were Justice Victor J. Dowling and William P. Larkin, overseas director of the Knights

Demands $40,000 on a $1,500

week Picture Contract.

Harry Houdini has brought suit in the country $1,221,060.

A report from Windsor, Conn., stated that a pledge of $250 has been made by a librarian who is supporting a wife and two children on $1,300 a year. At a Hartford ginner seven school and cole each, a total of $4,100 being raised. Among the subscriptions received during the day in this city was $172,777, which was raised at a dinner in the Harvard Club.

Call for Armistice Day Fetes.

Week Picture Contract.

Harry Houdini has brought suit in the country of the mough suit in the country Club Reception Follows Wedding in Mount Airy Church.

Special Despote to The Sux.

Fight Against the Octagon Film Corporation, for which company he appeared in the country Club.

Special Despote to The Sux.

Fight Against the Octagon Film Corporation, for which company he appeared in the country Club.

Special Despote to The Sux.

Fight Against the Octagon Film Corporation, for which company he appeared in the country Club.

Special Despote to The Sux.

Fight Against the Octagon Film Corporation, for which company he appeared in the country Club.

Special Despote to The Sux.

Fight Against the Octagon Film Corporation, for which company he appeared in the country Club.

Special Despote to The Sux.

Fight Against the Octagon Film Corporation, for which company he appeared in the country Club.

Special Despote to The Sux.

Fight Against the Octagon Film Corporation, for which company he appeared in the country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rossiter in Grace of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rossiter in Grace of Singapore, who stopped in the corporation, for which company he appear in the flum, his company in the country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Davis, Jr., and then in the mindus of November it will recoil in Broadway.

Tribute From Singapore.

Ada Forman, the Javanese dancer in the "Greenwich Village Foilles," in the " hibition of the serial, he states, and of this amount $80,000 represents profit on the venture. Houdini lives at 278 West 113th street.

Duff-Gleser.

Special Despatch to Tax Sex Graenwich, Conn., Oct. 9. — Miss Caroline M. Gleser, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gleser of Cos Cob. the service in the commendations. Caroline M. Gieser, usually the community service insists that prominent places be given to the wounded and semi-invalids in the parades, and asks the American Legion to get up bonfires or other novelties. The community service wants November 11 to be a big service wants November 11 to be a big far.

Caroline M. Gieser, usually was married this afternoon to Arthur William Duff in Christ Episcopal Church by the Rev. M. George Thompson. Mrs. Oscar W. Hamilton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and John Tammany of Cos Cob was best man.

Aroid Imitations and Substitutes

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD. LINCOLN DRAMA Miss Marie La Montagne will give a reception for Cardinal Mercier this af-ternoon in the ballroom of the Colony

Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Pratt, who are at Welwyn, their country place in Glen Cove. L. I., will give a dinner there this evening for Miss Helen Ladd Pratt and Richard Stockton Emmet, who will be married to-morrow at Poplar Hill, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic B. Pratt, also in Glen Cove. After the dinner a dance will be given for Miss Pratt, Mr. Emmet and the members of their bridal party by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Pratt at Manor House, near by.

ouse, near by. In the Irvington Town Hall this eve ning there will be an entertainment of tableaux vivants and dancing for the benefit of Robin's Nest, a summer home for crippled children in Tarrytown. Among the patronesses are Mmes. Howard Carroll, James Speyer, Frank A. Vanderlip, Maitland Griggs, W. Bathgate Becker, Joseph Clendenin, Franklin Q. Brown, George F. Shrady, Henry Villard, Henry D. Estabrook, J. Henry Whitehouse and Henry K. Browning.

Mr. and Mes. Herry L. Montagra Mr. and Mrs. Harry La Montagne, who passed the summer in Newport, expect to sail for France next Monday

Mr. and Mrs. William McNair have left Leeward, Bar Harbor, and now are at Harkaway House, their country place in Locust Valley, L. I. Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Potter have returned from Newport to the St. Regia, where they will be for the winter. They will leave the end of next week for a stay of three weeks at the Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs. Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Loew have gone to Rosemont, Pa., to visit Mr. and Mrs. George McFadden, who will give a dinner for them this evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. Stevens Ulman have returned to 24 East Eighty-first street from White Sulphur Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. D. Lanier have

Mrs. Charles I. Hudson will be at 27

East Eighty-third street for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Loring, Jr., of Locust Valley, L. I., will be at 116 East Sixty-sixth street for the winter.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Donaldson Brown of Hickory Drive, Maplewood, N. J., anof Hickory Drive, Maplewood, N. J., announced yesterday the engagement of their daughter. Miss Alice Hodson itown, to Henry Curtis Colby, son of Mrs. Gardner Colby of Washington street, East Orange. The wedding will take place in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Buttenwieser of 135 Central Park West announced title is "The Winged God," but as soon of the Chadwick family following the play and stuffed all four acts under his pillow. Its present of the Chadwick family following the civil war was recited.

resterday the engagement of their laughter, Miss Florence Buttenwieser, to Paul H. Klingenstein of this city. incement has been made by Mr and Mrs. Harry Lee Johnson of this city and Montclair, N. J., of the en-ragement of their daugnter, Miss Eleaor Wendell Johnson, to William E. Blewett, Jr., of Glen Ridge, who graduated in 1918 from Cornell.

WEDDING PLANS COMPLETED.

Lient, Hutchins November 1. Arrangements have been completed for daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmore Kerley of 10 East Eighty-first street, to Lieut, Henry Arthur Hutchins, U. S. N., which will take place on the afternoon of November 1 in St. Thomas's of Denver, the Misses Blossom Gray, Gladys Gould, Dorothea Hall, Madeline Resce and Victorine Kellogg of this city. Priscilla Kerley, sister of the bride, will last word, a word of confidence in you and hope that our hearts and efforts Gladys Gould, Dorothea Hall, Mauente will be united for the welfare of the great principles of justice and love of humanity and religion as the basis of humanity and religion as the basis of Lieut. Barrett Hutchins will be his Cardinal Mercler will leave New York to-morrow, but to-day he will be about all day again. He will be the guest of the Church Peace Union and Church Federation at noon at the Hotel Biltimore, will visit City College in the afternoon and dine with the Bar Association at night.

Lieut. Barrett Hutchins will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be his brother's brother's best man. The ushers will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be his brother's brother's best man. The usher's will be his brother's will be his b give a dinner for her bridal attendants. MISS HYLAN TO WED OCT. 29. Ceremony Will Take Place at Church in Brooklyn. Invitations were issued yesterday nue, Brooklyn. The officiating clergyman will be the Right Rev. Charles E. Mcthanked the Knights for what they had done in the war, the speakers were Justice Victor J. Dowling and William P. Larkin, overseas director of the Knights of Columbus.

Will be the Right Rev. Charles E. Mct. His caption was placed beneath: "Who's the Beau Brummel of this opera house." Our Lady of Good Counsel, will celebrate to the Beau Brummel of this opera house." To this an irresponsible chorus girl a low nuptial mass and after the cere a low nuptial mass and after the cere and the standard of the second of the country of the country of the Right Rev. Charles E. Mct. His caption was placed beneath: "Who's the Beau Brummel of this opera house." To this an irresponsible chorus girl added: "I know the answer—Fred Later of the Right Rev. Charles E. Mct. His caption was placed beneath: "Who's the Beau Brummel of this opera house."

Waldorf-Astoria. ROSSITER-HILL.

Katharine White has been with the players in the dramatization of his Red Cross in France for fifteen months.

Miss White is now with Miss Anne Morting committee doing reconstruction work in the devastated regions.

Mr. 200 Mrs. 2016 Mrs. Sailed for fifteen is typewriter in order to see that the players in the dramatization of his story, "Boys Will Be Boys," opening in the Belmont Theatre on Monday, put the right amount of Kentucky juice in their dialect. gan's committee doing reconstruction work in the devastated regions. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Lewis of Lansdowne have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Wilson, to George Norman Hylan of this city, Mrs. Elizabeth G. Bohem of this city has announced the marriage last Mon-day of her daughter, Miriam Elizabeth, to Alden Ellis Moore, HOLM-GREEN.

New York Girl and Physician Married by Justice Luce.

Miss Marguerite MacDonough Green, the only child of the late Warren Luqueer Green, president of the American Bank Note Company, and a niece of Edmund C. Converse, was married to Dr. Frits Holm of this city yesterday morning in the County Court House by Supreme Court Justice Robert P. Luce. The bride, who was given away by her mother, Mrs Jeanne Thierry Green, had no attendants. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father only a few relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. There was no reception.

After their wedding trip Dr. Holm and his bride will pass the winter in New York. In the spring they will sail for Europe and will visit Copenhagen and Paris.

Where Parts Are Shown They Must Be So Advertised.

Washington, Oct. 9,—Extending its recent order forbidding the reproduction of old films by motion picture flowes hinder new names, the Federal Trade Commission to-day ordered that where parts of old films were shown in new exhibitions they must be so marked and advertised.

The case of one recently shown picture is cited where out of a total of Long feet of film, 2 200 feet had been used in another picture shown a few years before. The order was issued against the Royal Cinema Corporation, the Monopole Pictures Company and the Mothers of Liberty Pictures Company.

Al Woods Buys Play on Hospital Cot, but May Change the Title.

John Drinkwater's play "Abraham Lincoln," one of the reigning London full of Scotch humor. He is due in San Francisco on the liner Pacific on October 27, and will be officially wel-comed back to America by William Morris, his American director. Lauder was to head straight for South Africa from Australia but was compelled by Mr. and Mrs. James F. D. Lanier have come from Bernardsville, N. J., to the St. Regis for a brief stay.

Henry C. Frick has gone to the Greenbrier, White Sulphur springs, where he will be for the remainder of this month. Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Kip, Jr., have come from Cedarhurst, L. I., to the Plaza.

Was to head straight for South Africa from Australia, but was compelled by shipping conditions to approach the Dark Continent gradually. He will exude a little Scotch in San Francisco. Los Angeles, Portland, Milwaukee, Chicago, Toronto, Boston, Philadelphia and New York to make the time pass more quickly before salling for Cane Town New York to make the time pass more quickly before sailing for Cape Town in February.

A. H. Woods, recovering from his recent illness in a sanitarium, has disobeyed the doctor's orders and bought EXPATRIATE'S WILL obeyed the doctor's orders and bought another play while convalescing. Crane Wilbur, knowing the producer's weakness, telephoned to Mr. Woods that he had a new play with a novel idea which could even stand being read in a hospital. Mr. Woods succumbed to the temptation and told Mr. Wilbur to snesk in and read the play to him when the as Mr. Woods gets a little stronger he s expected to change that.

"Hello Hopper" Rehearses.

Edward Clark, who staged and added padding to "Oh What a Girl," the musi-cal comedy in the Central Theatre, will soon start rehearsals for carrying along "Somebody's Luggage," which, has had music grafted upon it. It will bear fruit under the Shuberts as "Hello Hop-

F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest will The Rose of China," in Detroit on Sunday next, and New York is notified to a cousin. Ida Bisland Williams. As the be on the watch for it soon. Frank Mc-Intyre, Cecil Cunningham, Oscar Shaw, Jane Richardson and Georgie Mack have the law of the State of New York he been bonded to appear in it, and Julian Mitchell will celebrate his engagement as general musical stage director for Comstock and Gest by putting the dan-ers on their feet.

John Cort's first dramatic production Church. Miss Helen La Fetra will be the maid of honor and the bridesmaids of the season. "Three's a Crowd," by will be Miss Daisy Lee Hutchins of Earl Derr Biggers and Christopher Mor-Fortzmouth, Va., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Evelyn Miller of Des in the city at rehearsals yesterday, Moines, Miss Lila Hotz of Chicago, Miss
Elleen Ewing and Miss Barbara Sohnson
Kathleen, said to have been christened

after a magazine story.

Edward Locke and Victor Herbert are driving away ennul by collaborating on a new play with music, which Mr. Locke iniends to pattern after that classic "The Climax," by Edward Locke, John Halliday is to give aid and com-fort to "The Dancer" in the Harris Thelowe open the latest instalment of name to Mme Emma Destinova, and the musicians of the Metropolitan "Hamlet" in the Shubert Theatre on would appear under that name on the Monday next something new in the way operatio stage hereafter. Mr. Gatti- "Oberon." rick J. Ryan went yesterday to Tarrytown to thank John D. Rockefeller for her intimate friends on the afternoon of the had given to Belgium during October 27, and on October 31 she will of stage business and costumes is promised, especially in the play scene, and the lighting and scenic devices are said to be worthy of nature. o be worthy of nature.

Mark Luescher, upon being cross exmined, deposes that Percival Knight and Roy Alwell have been the subject of much cheery comment from their fel-low players in "Apple Biossoms" ever Invitations were issued yesterday for the wedding October 29 of Miss Virginia Hylan, only daughter of Mayor John F and Mrs. Hylan, to John F, Simott of Brooklyn, private secretary to the Mayor. The wedding will take place at 11 o'clock in the forenoon at the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Putnam avenue, Brooklyn, The officiating clerkyman. terday, with two portraits of themselves looking sleek in evening clothes, while this caption was placed beneath: "Who's

> The Coburns have engaged Lee Bake for an important role in Louis K. Ans-pacher's drama, "All the King's Horses," which will be pulled down to Baltimore on October 27, and then in the middle

The other night in the Lyceum Theatre a bouncing golden haired lassic ap-proached the box office and explained to William Blackmore, the treasurer, that she wanted to buy for a girl friend two seats to "The Grave Diggers."
"You mean "The Gold Diggers," he

"Well, whatever it is," responded the young woman, "I want two of the best seats in the second balcony."

OLD FILMS BAN EXTENDED.

STOCK TO EMPLOYEES NEW SYMPHONY

Founder of Mourning House Rewards Service.

Employees of the Crocker Mourning House, Inc., at 375 Fifth avenue and in Boston are beneficiaries by the will of Mary E. Crooker, founder of the large establishment, who died September 24 in the Waldorf-Astoria, where she had resided for a number of years Large blocks of stock in the concern are bequeathed to the officers and em-ployees on the basis of length of ser-. An additional proviso is made in will which was filed yesterday in the will which was filed yesterus; the Surrogate's Court that employees of both the Boston and New York stores be given the preference in the purchase of stock as it is disposed of by the executors in the process of liquidating the estate.

Annuities of $720 are provided for did last spring does not count.

After making a specific bequest of $10,000 to her sister, Ann F. Kennedy, and the latter's husband, John M. Kennedy, the testatrix directs that the reMr. Bodanzky had "made good." Given and the latter's husband, John M. Ken-nedy, the testatrix directs that the re-nedy, the testatrix directs that the re-siduary estate be divided among her tender bosoms and the fate of any sym-

Francis P. Sheehan, John M. Stod-dard and the Bankers Trust Fund are P appointed executors. According to the petition for probate filed by Stoddard & Mark, 128 Broadway, the value of the estate is several hundred thousand lollars.

COSTS KIN $60,000 Brother Nonsuited in Effort to Obtain Legacy.

In a report filed yesterday in the throp, referee, the dismissal of a claim of John Rose Chadwick against the civil war was recited.

According to the referee the parents of John Rose Chadwick and Coster the time of his death in August, 1914. John Rose Chadwick lived in America. By the terms of his will $10 was left to John Rose Chadwick and the residue of the estate was bequeathed to an aunt. Henrietta Tallmadge, and a cousin. Ida Risland Williams was entitled to her share of the estate. Referes Winthrop held that as the decedent had spent the greater part of his life in France and had shown no intion | icile in this country the will is subject by to the laws of France. For that rea he decided, the entire estate res to the other residuary legate Narly $60,000 is involved by the deci

EMMY DESTINN CHANGES NAME

Emma Destinova Now: Other Was Too Teutonic.

It became known last night through an announcement by Giulio Gatti-casazza of the Metropolitan Opera serve the progress and development of House that Mme Emmy Destina, the the orchestra under the training of a grand opera singer, had changed her conductor who has been able to make operatic stage hereafter. Mr. Gatt Casazza announced that "Mme, Emm Destinova, an artist with whom is as-sociated so many brilliant memories and with whom the public has so much syr pathy, will appear in several pe-formances during the coming season the Metropolitan Opera Company."
No announcement was made as to the reasons which impelled Mme. Desting to change her name, although it is presumed that it was because her for-ner name was too much associated with before the war. Her real name, how-ever, is Emmy Kittel. She is the daughter of a well to do citizen of Prague Destinn and adopted the name of her attended. teacher. Mme. Desting recently returned to the

United States from Bohemia, where she was throughout the war period. FRIARS MARK 25TH

which was called "Miss Jerry," were thrown on the screen last night and showed that its producer, who acted as author, titler, director and camera ma-sed "visions" and other devices com-

A congratulatory letter from Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players. Lasky Corporation, was received by Mr. Black, who now is a novellst, never having taken up film production in its preent development. J. Stuart Blackton de-livered an address. Alice Brady, Cath-erine Calvert, Dorls Kenyon, Jube Caprice and Dorothy Dalton appeared person. Others present were William A. Brady, Whitman Bennett, George Gordon Battle, William Grossman, Will tam L. Sherill and Arthur B. Reeve.

CONCERT PLEASES

Artur Bodanzky Presents Programme of Dignity and Proportion.

TONE QUALITY IS DARK

Orchestra Has Opportunity to Progress Under Present Conductor.

What the New Symphony Orchestra successes, it became known yesterday, will enlighten the American public about the great emancipator about November 3. The playwright is now on a lecture tour here, and William Harris, Jr., is preparing to put the civil war on a good box office basis. It is reported that Ned Burton is likely to play the chief part, with specially designed hirsute scenery.

Harry Lauder—now Sir Harry Lauder in his own right—is on the way back to this country, having stuffed Australia full of Scotch humor. He is due in $10.000 to her sisters, American Manuel Sarah H. Wise, programme of the concert given at Caremployees, and specific bequests of several thousand dollars are made to others the "first season." Most music lovers Nancy J. Isaacs and Sarah H. Wise, programme of the concert given at Car-hony orchestra is safe. The New Sym phony Orchestra was assured of contin-uation and its real and only first season therefore began with last evening's con-therefore began with last evening a con-cert, Artur Bodanzky conducting. The programme was one of artistic dignity and proportion. It began with Bach's choral prelude for organ, "Out of the Deep I Cry," arranged for futes, oboes, bassoons, trombones and strings by Charles Martin Loeffler's Mr. Bodanzky: Charles Martin Loc now familiar "Pagan Poem," with Hein-rich Bebhard as the player of the plano obbligato: Wagner's "A Faust Overture" and Beethoven's Fifth Symphony. It any fault is to be found with the arrangement it must be with the allotment In a report filed yesterday in the of the final place to the symphony: A surrogate's Court by Egerton L. Win-thron referes the dismissal of a claim that a symphony should always stand first on a serious programme. The ques-tion is open to debate. Mr. Bodansky's orchestra is an organization in the first blush of its youth, but it played last evening as if the snows of yesteryear had long ago settled on its brows. Doubtless Mr. Loeffler's superb tonal translation of Virgil's According to the research of John Rose Chadwick and Coster of John Rose Chadwick and Coster had been considered as a constant of the cause of the nounce the land of their birth and settle in France when the cause of the mingled heavily trained music lovers, steeped in the mysteries of Bach and Brahma with charming social dignitived with his parents in France but the steeped in the mysteries of Bach and Brahma with charming social dignitived with his parents in France but the latter perhaps Mr. "Sorceress," with its long drawn trum-petings of the yearning refrain, "Ducite > quite adequate performance. It was creditable, but it suffered from much the same disabilities as the presentation of Wagner's embodiment of the oppressed Here indeed Mr. Bodanzky indulged in Here indeed Mr. Bodanzky indulged in lingering sweetness long drawn out, squeezing the tragic juices out of every phrase and pedalling the pianissimi to the faintest of echoes. It was all too tame till the end, and that was a grand stand finish indeed.

>
> Mr. Bodanzky is nevertheless a grand

no ancient concert goer was

Mr. Bodanzky is nevertheless a good rchestral conductor and in time will o notable things with this new organization. He has much work before him. The tone quality of the orchestra is still dark, heavy, opaque, never shimsering with translucence, never sugresting the sunlight of Mozart. . Its ncieiveness and its colors in general anting in elementary brilliane through But this is only the beginning of Gatti- things and it will be interesting to obthe opening.

LAST HONORS PAID TO HENRY M. ALDEN Many Societies Represented at Funeral Held Yesterday.

Funeral services for Henry Mills Alresumed that it was because her for-ner name was too much associated with hings Teutonic, since she was born in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. Schemia and was a subject of Austria The Rev. Dr. Milo H. Gates, vicer of the Chapel of the Intercession, officiated About one hundred and fifty persons representatives mostly of various socie ties in which Mr. Alden was interested The family was represented by the widow.

The honorary pallbearers were Robert Underwood Johnson, William Dea Howells, Prince Pierre Troubetzskoy, Dr Henry E. Ilaie, J. Henry Harper, Alan Sullivan, Dr. Carter Troop, Dr. Titus Coan and Archer M. Huntington, The active pallbearers were J. W. T. Mason Lee Foster Hartman, Thomas B. Wells, Manart Kippen, Edmund Driggs and Daniel Huntington.

The burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield.

Announces New and greatly enlarged facili-ties for the handling of all social functions-private, public or State. Its large and small Ball Rooms, comfortable Foyers and separate or connecting rooms are spa-cious, beautiful and perfectly fitted for

BANQUETS, PRIVATE DINNER AND SUPPER DANCES, SUBSCRIP-TION DANCES, LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, WEDDINGS, DEBUTANTE PARTIES, DEBUTANTE PARTIES, DEFECTIONS DEBUTATE RECEPTIONS, PRIVATE THEATRICALS, JUNIOR ENTERTAINMENTS

and all other functions of an exclusive social nature FRED STERRY

Managing Director

OBITUARIES.

CARLOS MELENDES.

Carlos Misengez, who resigned in March as President of the Republic of Salvador, coming here shortly after for medical treatment, died Wednesday in a private sanitarium at 203 West Seventieth street. A requiem mass will be said to-day at 10 a. m. in St. Patrick's Cathedral. The body is at an undertak-Cathedral. The body is at an undertaking establishment at 665 Lexington avenue, where it was viewed yesterday by Consul-General Romero and other citisens of Salvador resident here. The body will be transported to San Salvador on Monday.

Melender was in office from March, Melender was in office from March, 1915, until his resignation last spring. As each election came due he resigned, as required by the Salvadorian law, and became a candidate to succeed himself. He had barely been inaugurated this year when his liness compelled him to leave office. In his last inaugural speech President Melender praised the efforts President Melendez praised the efforts President Wilson was then making in behalf of world peace and said that the American President deserved much of bumanity.

Mrs. Melendez was with her husband at his death, coming with him to this city early in the summer. A brother of Mr. Melendes is now President of Sal-vador, according to Dr. Romero.

MRS. SOPHIA HERRICK.

Mrs. Sophia McIlvaine Bledsoe Herick, a writer and former magazine editor, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Hugh F. Fox, at Riveroaugater, Mrs. Hugh F. Fox, at River-side, Conn., yesterday. During her resi-dence in Piainfield, N. J., she was in-terested in prison reform and was as-sistant editor of the publications of the New Jersey Charities and Corrections

Mrs. Herrick was born in Gambier, Mrs. Herrick was born in Gambier, Ohio, May 25, 1837, and received her education in Dayton. In 1874 she became associate editor of the Southern Review, published in that city. Four years later she joined Scribner's. She was president of the Woman's Board of Bayonne Hospital ten years, and was a member of the Woman's Literature Club of Baltimore and the Monday Afternoon Club of Plainfield. Her husband, the Rev. James B. Herrick, died several years ago. Besides Mrs. Fox she leaves Rev. James B. Herrick, died several years ago. Besides Mrs. Fox she leaves a daughter, Mrs. F. R. Wall of Berkeley, Cal., and a son, A. B. Herrick of this city. The funeral will be held privately at Riverside, with burial at Charlottes-

HARRY F. MORSE.

Harry F. Morse, 68, who was widely known in shipbuilding affairs, died yesterday at Sands Point, L. I. Mr. Morse was born at Bath, Me., and succeeded his father, the late J. Parker Morse, in the shipbuilding business, from which he retired some ten years are he retired some ten years ago. He was graduated from Andover Academy. He had a city home at 3 West Forty-sixth street. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Jane Schuyler Mr. Morse was a member of the Union League and other clubs. The funeral will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church, Fifty-seventh street and Madison avenue, to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ALBERT C. FUCHS. Funeral services will be held to-day for Albert Christian Fuchs, cashier who died Tuesday. He was 51 years old and lived at 435 Monroe street. Brooklyn. Mr. Fuchs had been connected with the Commonwealth Bank for thirty years. He was well known as an amateur bowler. He is survived by a brother and two sisters. ent will be in Greenwood Cemetery. THE REV. OTIS O. WRIGHT. Special Despatch to Tan Sun.

ONECO, Conn., Oct. 9.—The Rev. Otla D. Wright, 75, died at Newtown, Conn., o-day. He was one of the most widely known Episcopal clergymen in houthern New England. Besides being a pastor he was a writer of considerable note. French Antomobile Snow Opens. Panis, Oct. 9.-The first automobile exposition to be held in France since 1913 was opened this morning at the Grand Palais. President Poincare officiated at

Never has our reputation as users of the world's best woolens been better upheld. More bales of fine Scotch and English Woolens passing through the Customs for Rogers Peet than for any other dealer. Add to these the best made in America and you have some idea of the character of goods we make up.

men and boys. We know a number of men who will be delighted to learn that our stock of light weight Italian felt hats is now complete-in three shades: moss green. seal brown, carbon gray;

into suits and overcoats for

We specialize in luggage.

Sporting Goods, too.

ROGERS PEET COMPANY "Four

also black.

Broadway at Warren

at 34th St. Convenient Corners"

Fifth Ave. at 41st St.

Broadway